Dear Prosecutor,

We respectfully transmit the enclosed dossier of evidence collected by the Gaza Tribunal (2024–2025), which may assist your Office in its ongoing investigation into crimes committed on the territory of the State of Palestine.

The Gaza Tribunal is an independent body composed of international jurists, scholars, forensic experts, and practitioners. Through formal hearings in Sarajevo and Istanbul, it collected testimony and documentary evidence indicating the commission of acts that may constitute:

- genocide under Article 6 of the Rome Statute;
- crimes against humanity under Article 7, including extermination, persecution, forcible transfer, gendered crimes, starvation, and other inhumane acts;
- war crimes under Article 8, including attacks against civilians, starvation as a method of warfare, destruction of cultural property, and attacks on humanitarian personnel.

The enclosed materials include:

1. Transcripts of sworn witness testimony;
2. A structured evidentiary matrix prepared in accordance with international standards;
3. Expert legal classification reports collected by the Witness Eye project;
4. Analysis demonstrating patterns, chains of command, and contextual factors relevant to the chapeau requirements of crimes against humanity and genocide;
5. The Tribunal's final written findings, which synthesize intent, pattern, and scale.

We respectfully request that this material be reviewed by the Prosecution's Situation Analysis and Investigations teams and that specific excerpts may, at your discretion, be incorporated into evidence assessments, charging considerations, or witness development.

The Tribunal remains available to provide clarifications, source authentication, or follow-up information as needed.

Respectfully, Name Role Gaza Tribunal Secretariat / Jury of Conscience
